

The infection protection act applies to whom?

- a) only for chefs/ cooks
- b) only for persons who directly work with food
- c) for everybody who is working at the food industry in Germany

What does the infection protection act mean?

- a) taking over individual responsibility, prohibition of employment during special diseases
- b) safety at work in the hotel and restaurant trade
- c) that all employees often wash their hands

Why is it not allowed to go to work with special diseases?

- a) people who are ill are not able to work with full power
- b) germs can be transferred to other people who will get ill too
- c) if you work while you are ill, it could be worse

When it is not allowed to work concerning the infection protection act.

(More than one answer is possible)

- a) if I have diarrhea with more than two thin fluid stool a day
- b) if I have sore throat
- c) if I have high fever with a heavy head, abdomen and/ or joint pain
- d) if I have back pain
- e) if I have milky white diarrhea with a high fluid loss
- f) if I recognize a yellow colour of my eyes and my skin and I feel weak and I'm anorexic
- g) if I have a heavy head after a party
- h) if a stool sample has proofed pathogenic germs
- i) if you have wounds or open parts of skin diseases, the skin is flid, greasy watery and engorged and a useful bandage is not possible
- j) if relevant history of diseases had been during your holidays (even you feel better)

What can I do if I have some symptoms but I'm not sure?

- a) I go to work and ask my manager what to do
- b) I inform my employer and go to the doctor
- c) I have been signed off for some days and I will give the note tomorrow to my employer

With my signature I confirm, that wrong answers has been corrected and that I have been trained about the infection protection act.

Signature employee

Signature supervisor or employer